An institution in the garden

The origin of Nebuta Festival

Because "Nebuta Festival" is not a festival of the specific Buddhist temple and Shinto shrine, some "source" is had left as folklore. The one is "Tamura Maro legend". Next "Nebuta Festival" the garden lantern which it makes a flute, a drum and a doll garden lantern, and it lured the Ezo where Tamura maro Sakanoueno appointed a commander-in-chief of an expeditionary force against the barbarians resists in an occasion of the Ezo conquest, but it used for the feint operation plan, and it is an opinion said to that it was told as a festival. In addition, Tamenobu Tsugaru displays a big Bon festival lantern in the Tsugaru feudal clan mansion of Kyoto in the case of the Feast of Lanterns, and this is widely known to the whole country as "a large garden lantern of Tsugaru", and there is an opinion to do when I changed a figure into a festival later. There is the proof as the historical fact neither, and a folk theory assumed that the event of manners and customs and "the Star Festival" of "the lantern-offering on the water" was mixed by the present is commonly used. I entrust it with a wish and make a scapegoat to expel impurity, and it is said that the courtesy to drain into a river and the sea as a purification ceremony is "Nebuta Festival" that the scapegoat borrowed the form of the garden lantern from with the thing which is common to both.

The etymology of Nebuta Festival

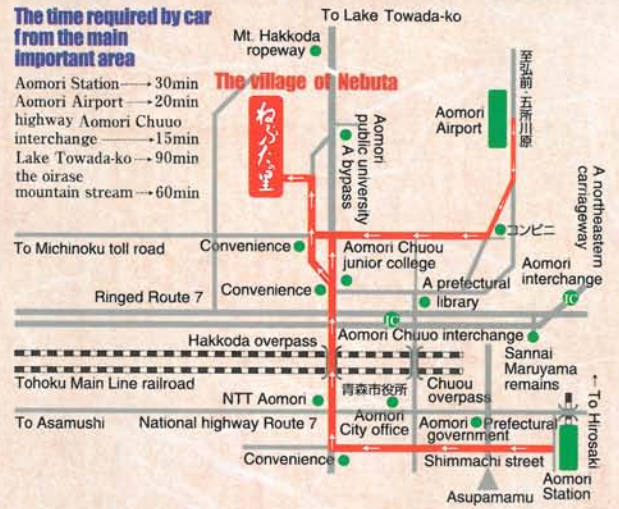

I say "sleepy" as "neputai" in the Tsugaru address that is a dialect of Aomori. A head of the autumn of the crop, I send away the drowsiness that the labor disturbs in short summer pressed by farming, and event "lantern-offering on the water" to drain a wicked soul develops as a garden lantern festival. People advocate it with "a nemuta sink", and it is said that it will be the thing which changed from "nemuta" into "Nebuta Festival".
